

Norris Wins Thrilling São Paulo Grand Prix!

McLaren
FORMULA 1 TEAM

Lando Norris delivered a confident and controlled performance at the São Paulo Grand Prix, crossing the finish line with a clear 10-second lead to secure his seventh win of the season. The McLaren driver showed strong pace from start to finish, managing the race with calm precision while keeping his closest rivals at bay. With this victory, Norris extends his championship lead even further, strengthening his position at the top of the standings as the season heads toward its final stages.
